

Please do not allow the big companies like Clear Channel to own any more stations and media outlets. As a matter of fact, please bring anti-trust action against them, or something similar. We can't have a few huge companies controlling the news. It's wrong and un-American.